Ávarp stjórnanda Mótettukórsins og listræns stjórnanda Listvinafélagsins

Kæru tónleikagestir!

Hjartanlega velkomin á 40 ára afmælistónleika Mótettukórsins og Listvinafélagsins í Höru.

„Sú þjóð sem í myrkri gengur sér mikið ljós.“

Þessi orð Jesaja spámanns sem Händel tónsetti sem þátt í óratóriunni Messíasi fyrir 281 ári eru lýsandi spádómur fyrir heimsbyggðina á viðsjárvérdum tínum. Hlutverk listarinnar er brýnt í samfélagi okkar nú sem fyr – að lýsa upp myrkur, að leiða til ljóss.

Óratórian Messías segir sögu frelsarans með orðum sem flest voru skráð löngu áður en hann sjálfur var lagður í jötu á hinum fyrstu jólum. Messías er óður til ljóss, huggunar, fyrirgefningar og upprisu. Hún horfir ekki framhjá skuggahliðunum sem óhjákvæmilega fylgja mennskunni, en hún túlkar á sannfærandi hátt fullnaðarsigur ljóssins. Orðunum, sem dregin eru saman úr ólíkum ritum Bíblíunnar, er í tónlist Händels gefinn búningur sem engan lætur ósnortinn. Við höfum valið óratóriuna Messías til að fagna þessum tímamótum – ekkert eitt tónverk getur speglað betur þær tilfinningar og minningar sem við tengjum starfi okkar í fjóra áratugi.

Í 40 ár hefur Mótettukórrinn æft og flutt tónlist sem flytur sama boðskap og Messías – að boða kristna trú. Viðamestu tónverkin hafa verið óratóriur eftir Bach og Händel auk nokkurra íslenskra óratória, sem samdar hafa verið séristaklega fyrir kórinn.

Með þessum tónleikum fagna afmælisbörnin og þakka fyrir að hafa fengið að vinna svo lengi við listsköpun og tónlistarflutning.

Það er mér persónulega mikið þakkarefni að hafa búið við þær aðstæður að geta helgað mig kirkjutónlistinni á starfsferli mínum og þjónað listinni í áratugi og vil ég nota tækifærið til að þakka öllu samstarfsfólkini og því einvalalíði listafolks sem ég hef verið svo lánsamur að fá að starfa með.

F.h. Mótettukórsins og Listvinafélagsins þakka ég allan þann mikilvæga stuðning sem við höfum hlotið gegnum árin.

Góða skemmtun og njótið vel!

Address from the director of the Motet Choir and artistic director of the Reykjavík Friends of the Arts Society

Dear Concert Guests!

I wish you a very warm welcome to this 40th anniversary concert of the Motet Choir and the Friends of the Arts Society in the Harpa concert hall.

‘The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light.’

These words of the prophet Isaiah, set to music by Handel 281 years ago as part of his oratorio Messiah, are a telling prophecy for the world we live in in perilous times. Art has a pressing role to play in our society now as ever before – to illuminate darkness, to lead us into light.

Handel’s Messiah tells the story of the redeemer in words, most of which were set down long before He himself was laid in a manger at the first Christmas. Messiah is an ode to light, consolation, forgiveness and resurrection. It does not gloss over the dark sides that form an inevitable accompaniment to our human condition, but it interprets convincingly the full and final victory of the light. The words, drawn from various books of the Bible, are in Handel’s music given an apparel that leaves no one untouched.

We have chosen Messiah to celebrate this special occasion. No other single work of music can better reflect the feelings and memories we associate with our activities over four decades.

For 40 years the Motet Choir has practised and performed music that conveys the same message as Messiah – to proclaim the Christian faith. The paramount works have been the oratorios of Bach and Handel, along with a number of Icelandic oratorios composed especially for the choir.

Through this concert, on the occasion of its anniversary, the choir celebrates its existence, with thanks for having been able to work for so many years in artistic creativity and the performance of music.

I personally have good reason to be thankful for having lived under circumstances that have allowed me to devote myself to church music through my career and serve the arts for many years, and I wish to take this opportunity to thank all my colleagues and the select group of artists it has been my good fortune to have worked with.

On behalf of the Motet Choir and the Reykjavík Friends of the Arts Society I offer thanks for all the generous and indispensable support we have received throughout the years.

I bid you welcome and wish you every enjoyment!

Hörður Áskelsson

Fátt róar hug og hjarta eins og að syngja í kór. Þegar ég var nýflutt til Íslands árið 2003 langaði mig strax að ganga í kór. Ekki aðeins vegna þess að ég hafði áður sungið í kór sem stúdent, og ekki heldur til þess að finna innri ró (en vissulega vonaðist ég til að kórsöngurinn yrði ljós í myrkrinu til að brauka fyrsta veturn aðeins svo nærrí heimskautsbaug). Fyrst og fremst réðu praktískar ástæður því að ég ákvað að ganga í kór: Ég vildi kynna fólk, og ég vildi læra íslensku.

Mótettukórrinn svalaði öllum þessum þörfum mínum. Strax á fyrstu æfingunni gaf fólk sér tíma til að kynna sig fyrir mér í hléi og bjóða mig velkomna í kórinn. Fyrir mig sem splunkunýr Íslendingur var þetta eftirtektarvert og mjög dýrmætt. Og bolinmæðin sem mætti mér var dásamleg. Ég hafði lært að lesa nótur á undan stafrófinu, en engu að síður varð ég (og verð enn) frekar ringluð yfir þessum nýju nótum: H? Fís? Sís? Hvað varð um C#? Bb? Bara eitthvað B?

Stuttu fyrir fyrstu tónleikana okkar mannaði ég mig upp í að spryja kórsystkini míni lykilspurningar, á minni brotnu íslensku: Yrði gerð krafa um að við klæddumst búðingi á svíðinu? (Svarið var nei.)

Að öllu gríni slepptu á ég ákaflega hlýjar minningar með Mótettukórum. Frá söngæfingum á dimmum vetrarkvöldum og svo gleðinni sem fylgdi því að flytja fjölbreytileg tónverk fyrir fullum sal af fólk. Tilfinningin er einstök og mér finnst forréttindi að hafa fengið að upplifa það, jafnvel aðeins um skamma hríð.

Ég óska öllum númerandi og fyrirverandi meðlimum Mótettukórsins innilega til hamingju með 40 ára afmælið. Takk fyrir gleðina sem þið hafið fært svo ótalmögum í áratugi.

There is nothing quite as soothing for the mind and soul as singing in a choir. When I first moved to Iceland in 2003, I was keen to join a choir not only because I had sung as a student, and not only because of the aforementioned well-being dimension (though as my first sub-Arctic winter loomed large in my mind, I knew singing would be a balm to any darkness-induced moods), but also for practical reasons: I wanted to meet people, and I wanted to learn Icelandic.

Mótettukórrinn served all purposes. During my first practice, several people took the time to introduce themselves to me at the break and to welcome me to the choir. As a relatively new arrival to the country, this was notable and important. And the patience with which people treated me was wonderful! Although I had learned to read music before I learned to read words, I was (and still am, to be honest) rather lost at these “new” notes: H? Fís? Sís? What happened to C#? Bb? Any B?

It was also shortly before our first concert that I stuck up the courage to ask the group a practical question in my beginner’s Icelandic: Would we be required to wear búðingur during the performance? (We were not.)

In all seriousness, though, I have very fond memories of my time as a choir member – singing choral music together during stormy winter nights, and then having the joy of performing diverse pieces for an audience. There is really nothing quite like it and I feel privileged to have experienced it if only for a brief time.

I wish all current and former members of Mótettukórrinn all best wishes on their 40th anniversary, and sincere thanks for the joy you have brought to so many over the decades.

Um Messías

Georg Friedrich Händel var afkastamikið tónskáld. Númeruð tónverk hans eru rétt rúmlega 600 og þar á meðal eru 42 óperur, 29 óratóriur og rúmlega 120 kantötur. Geri aðrir betur. Í langflestum þessara verka sýnir höfundurinn af sér dramatískt næmi og melódíská andagift sem er við brugðið. Þó að Händel hafi oftast unnið allhratt urðu afköstir sjaldan eða aldrei meiri en þegar hann samdi Messías; á 24 dögum í águst og september árið 1741 ruddi hann út úr sér verkinu af slíku offorsi að eiginhandarrit hans, heilar 259 síður, lítur stundum út eins og slettumálverk eftir Jackson Pollock. Frágangur þess ber upprunanum vitni. Það má reyndar ekki gleyma því að suma kafla endurnýtti Händel úr eldri verkum, sem hefur líklega varnað því að hann bræddi úr sér við skriftirnar, en ringulreiðin og öskurkennd tilorðning verksins er þeim mun merkilegri fyrir það hversu friður þess er djúpur, lotningin einbeitt og einlægni þess sönn. Händel náði sambandi við eithváð eða einhværn meðan á þessu stóð. Enda sagðist hann hafa séð guð almáttugan og himneska herskara í sýn þegar hann lauk við Hallelúja-kórinn, og grátið.

Samtímanni kveiktu um leið á verkinu þegar það var frumflutt í Dylfinni á Írlandi vorið 1742. Svo vel spurðist Messías út að kavalérar voru vinsamlegast beðnir um að skilja sverð sín eftir heima og frúr að mæta í einföldum pilsum án gjarða. Þannig mætti koma fleiri áheyrendum fyrir og selja fleiri miða! Händel var í góðu sambandi við mammon og yrði sagður hafa „markaðslega kvika færni“ nú á dögum. Og markaðurinn stækkaði bara og stækkaði, í margi konar skilningi, því að vinsældir Messíasar jukust með hverju árinu sem leið eftir dauða Händels. Allir vildu Messías kveðið hafa; sjálfur Mozart dundaði sér eitt sinn við að útsetja Messías upp á nýtt með alls konar mózartískum krúsídúllum. Smekkur manna hneigðist snemma í þá átt að flytja verkið með miklum kórum og stórum hljómsveitum uns svo var komið laust eftir miðbik 19. aldar að tónleikauppfærsla á Messíasi með um 3.000 flytjendum þótti ekki sérstaklega fréttinæm.

Upp úr því fór sumum að leiðast þófið og tóku til við að flysja 19. öldina utan af Messíasi. Það gerðu þeir með því að rýna vel og lengi í hrafnasparkið í eiginhandarritinu tætta frá 1741 svo að hver leikin nota líktist sem mest því sem Händel ætlaðist til. Þegar upprunaflutningur náði verulegu flugi eftir miðbik 20. aldar var eins og einhver hefði fægt gamlan og óhreinan spegil; sá Messías sem kom í ljós var glæsilegri, innilegri og fegurri en sá sem menn höfðu vanist. Verkið verður leikið í þessum anda upprunastefnunnar í dag, á hljóðfæri sem Händel hefði líklega þekkt hljóminn úr sjálfur.

Messías er dramatískur í eðli sínu, þar er sögð mikil og háleit saga með aðferðum barokkóperunnar. Sagan er á stundum beitt og óvægin en miðar alltaf að fögnumiðnum sem tenórinn syngur um í blábyrjun, eins og spámaður á eintali við áheyrendur; þeim fögnumið að áþjánin sé á enda og að sektin sé goldin.

Góða skemmtun!

Handel's Messiah

George Frederick Handel was a prolific composer, leaving a legacy of over 600 numbered works, including 42 operas, 29 oratorios and more than 120 cantatas. A full life indeed! In the vast majority of these works he displays a dramatic sensibility and melodic inspiration that are entirely his own. Though Handel usually worked pretty quickly, his creative zeal was seldom if ever greater than when composing the Messiah: over 24 days in August and September 1741 he ground the work out with such urgency that his autograph manuscript, all 259 pages of it, at times looks like a Jackson Pollock splatter painting. The finished product bears testimony to its origins. Some passages in fact Handel lifted or adapted from older works, which presumably helped him to avoid burn-out during the composition, but the chaotic and frenetic genesis of the work is all the more remarkable when seen against its sense of profound peace, its unfaltering reverence, and its genuine sincerity. Handel achieved contact with something or someone as this went on, and indeed he said that he had seen Almighty God and the heavenly hosts in a vision when he completed the Hallelujah chorus, and had wept.

The work found an immediate response in Handel's contemporaries at its première in Dublin, Ireland in the spring of 1742. So well was it spoken of that young bloods were kindly requested to leave their swords at home and ladies to attend in simple skirts without hoops; this way there would be room to fit people in, and thus more tickets sold! Handel was a canny businessman, no stranger to lure of mammon and with a keen eye for prevailing tastes. And the market just grew and grew, in many senses, for the work's popularity increased year by year after the composer's death. Everyone wanted to have composed the Messiah; Mozart himself at one time tinkered about rearranging it with all kinds of Mozartian frills and flourishes. From early on popular taste tended towards the monumental, staging the work with big choirs and large orchestras, until in the years after the middle of the 19th century a concert production of the Messiah with around 3000 performers was not considered particularly newsworthy.

Subsequently some people started to feel they had had enough of this whole to-do and went about paring away the 19th century from the Messiah. This they did by close and detailed analysis of the scrawlings in the tatty autograph copy from 1741, with a view to making each note played as close as possible to what Handel had intended. When historically informed performance really took off in the second half of the 20th century it was as if someone had polished up an old and grimy mirror; the Messiah that emerged was more magnificent, more profound, and more beautiful than people had become accustomed to. The work will be performed in this spirit of period performance today, on instruments whose sound Handel would probably have been familiar with himself.

The Messiah is in its very nature dramatic, telling a great and uplifting story through the methods of baroque opera. The story is at times raw and unsparing, but directed throughout towards the jubilation in the tenor's aria at the very beginning, like a prophet soliloquising to a rapt audience – the jubilation that the suffering is over and the debt repaid.

Enjoy!

The Motet Choir

The Motet Choir – formerly the Motet Choir of Hallgrímskirkja – was founded in 1982 and has been one of Iceland's preeminent choirs for forty years. Hörður Áskelsson has been its conductor since its inception. The choir's repertoire is extensive and multifaceted, and includes numerous oratorios, passions and requiems, a cappella pieces from various periods and Icelandic compositions that the choir has premiered.

The Motet Choir has toured numerous times, sung in many major cathedrals of Europe and participated in music festivals such as the Bergen International Festival, the Nordic Church Music Symposium in Gothenburg and the Wiener Festwochen in Vienna. The choir has also participated in international choir competitions, most recently in Jūrmala, Latvia, in the fall of 2018. It won a prize at the Cork International Choral Festival in 1996 and took home three gold medals as well as the Grand Prix from the 2014 International Choir Competition and Festival Cançó Mediterrània.

Among the major compositions that the Motet Choir has performed are works such as Handel's Messiah, Bach's St. Matthew Passion, St. John Passion, Christmas

Oratorio and Mass in B minor, Mozart's Requiem and Great Mass in C minor, the requiems of Duruflé and Fauré, Mendelssohn's oratorios Elijah and St. Paul, Rachmaninoff's All-Night Vigil, Frank Martin's Mass for Double Choir and the German Requiem of Johannes Brahms. The choir has been nominated three times as Performer of the Year in Classical and Contemporary Music at the Icelandic Music Awards, in 2012 for its performance of Beethoven's 9th Symphony (with the Iceland Symphony Orchestra), in 2015 for its performance of Handel's Solomon at the Festival of Sacred Arts in Hallgrímskirkja, and the choir received the prize for the year 2021 for its performance of Bach's Christmas Oratorio in Harpa last November.

The Motet Choir regularly performs with the Iceland Symphony Orchestra, most recently in March 2022. In addition, the choir has performed several celebrated concerts with the Reykjavík International Baroque Orchestra.

Reykjavík International Baroque Orchestra

The Reykjavík International Baroque Orchestra (RIBO) is comprised of excellent musicians from around the world, most having studied at the Royal Conservatoire of The Hague in the Netherlands, one of the leading academies in historically informed performance. Since their graduation, members of the orchestra have established themselves as highly sought-after musicians all over the world, regularly performing with leading ensembles and orchestras that specialise in historically informed performance such as Les Arts Florissants, Amsterdam Baroque Orchestra, Bach Collegium Japan, Orchestra of the Age of Enlightenment and Collegium Vocale Gent, and with world-renowned conductors including William Christie, Ton Koopman, Masaaki Suzuki and Philippe Herreweghe.

The members of RIBO have been frequent guests in Iceland ever since they came together for the first time to participate in the performance of Bach's Christmas Oratorio in the Friends of the Arts Society's Christmas Music Festival in Hallgrímskirkja in 2004 and again in 2005. The group performed at the Festival of Sacred Arts in 2005, 2007, 2015 and 2019, and played in the Motet Choirs's 30th and 35th anniversary concerts. RIBO's last concert was the lauded performance of the Christmas Oratorio with the Motet Choir conducted by Hörður Áskelsson in Harpa last November.

The orchestra has received great reviews for its performances and has played an invaluable part in introducing the instruments of the baroque and historically informed performance practice in Iceland. About a third of the members of the orchestra are Icelandic musicians that have specialised in the performance of early music.

Concertmaster of the orchestra is the Finnish violinist Tuomo Suni. The orchestra's founder and conductor is Hörður Áskelsson.

13. HJARÐLJÓÐ Sinfónia

14. TÓNLES (Sópran)

En í sömu byggð voru hirðar úti í haga og gættu um nöttina hjarðar sinnar.

(Lúk 2.8)

15 ACCOMPAGNATO (Soprano)

And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them, and they were sore afraid.

16 RECITATIVE (Soprano)

And the angel said unto them: Fear not, for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord.

17 ACCOMPAGNATO (Soprano)

And suddenly there was with the angel, a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God, and saying:

18 CHORUS

Glory to God in the highest, and peace on earth, good will towards men.

19 AIR (Soprano)

Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem! Behold, thy King cometh unto thee; He is the righteous Saviour, and He shall speak peace unto the heathen.

20 RECITATIVE (Alto)

Then shall the eyes of the blind be opened, and the ears of the deaf unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing.

15. TÓNLES (Sópran)

Og engill Drottins stóð hjá þeim og dýrð Drottins ljómaði kringum þá. Þeir urðu mjög hræddir.

(Lúk 2.9)

16. TÓNLES (Sópran)

En engillinn sagði við þá: „Verið óhræddir, því, sjá, ég boða yður mikinn fögnuð sem veitast mun öllum ljónum: Yður er í dag frelsari fæddur, sem er Kristur Drottinn, í borg Davíðs.

(Lúk 2.10-11)

17. TÓNLES (Sópran)

Og í sömu svipan var með englinum fjöldi himneskra hersveita sem lofuðu Guð og sögðu:

(Lúk 2.13)

18. KÓR

Dýrð sé Guði í upphæðum og friður á jörðu og velþóknun Guðs yfir mönnum.

(Lúk 2.14)

19. ARÍA (Sópran)

Fagna mjög, dóttirin Síon, lát gleðilátum, dóttirin Jerúsalem. Sjá, konungur þinn kemur til þín. Réttlátur er hann og sigursæll, Hann mun boða þjóðunum frið

(Sak 9.9-10)

20. TÓNLES (Alt)

Þá munu augu blíndra ljúkast upp og eyru daufra opnast. Þá stekkur hinn halti sem hjörtur og tunga hins mállausaa fagnar.

(Jes 35.5-6a)

21 DUET (Soprano/Alto)

He shall feed His flock like a shepherd;
and He shall gather the lambs with His arm,
and carry them in His bosom,
and gently lead those that are with young.

Come unto Him, all ye that labour, come unto Him that are heavy laden, and He will give you rest. Take His yoke upon you, and learn of Him, for He is meek and lowly of heart, and ye shall find rest unto your souls.

22 CHORUS

His yoke is easy, and his burden is light.

PART TWO

The accomplishment of redemption by the sacrifice of Jesus, mankind's rejection of God's offer, and mankind's utter defeat when trying to oppose the power of the Almighty

23 CHORUS

Behold the Lamb of God, that taketh away the sin of the world.

24 AIR (Alt)

He was despised and rejected of men, a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief.

He gave His back to the smiters,
and His cheeks to them that plucked off the hair:
He hid not His face from shame and spitting.

21. TVÍSÖNGUR (Sópran/Alt)

Eins og hirðir mun hann halda hjörð sinni til haga, taka unglömbin í faðm sér
og bera þau í fangi sínu en leiða mæðurnar.

(Jes 40.11)

Komið til hans öll þér sem erfiðið og þunga eruð hlaðin, og hann mun veita yður hvíld. Takið á yður hans ok og lærið af honum því að hann er hógvær og af hjarta lítillátur og þá munuð þér finna hvíld sálum yðar.

Matt 11.28-29

22. KÓR

Því að hans ok er ljúft og byrði hans létt.

(Matt 11.30)

ANNAR HLUTI

Fórn Jesú til syndaflausnar, mannkyn afneitar fórn Guðs og algjör uppgjöf mannkyns í baráttunni við afl almættisins.

23. KÓR

Sjá, Guðs lamb sem ber synd heimsins.

(Jóh 1.29b)

24. ARÍA (Alt)

Hann var fyrirlitinn og menn forðuðust hann, harmkvälamaður og kunnugur þjáningum,

(Jes 53.3a)

Hann bauð bak sitt þeim sem börðu hann og vanga sína þeim sem reyttu skegg hans, huldi ekki andlit sitt fyrir háðung og hrákum.

(Jes 50.6)

25 CHORUS

Surely He hath borne our griefs,
and carried our sorrows!
He was wounded for our transgressions,
He was bruised for our iniquities;
the chastisement of our peace was upon Him.

25. KÓR

En vorar þjáningar voru það sem hann bar og vor harmkvæli er hann á sig lagði.
En hann var særður vegna vorra synda, kraminn vegna vorra misgjörða.
Honum var refsáð svo að vér fengjum frið

(Jes 53.4-5)

26 CHORUS

And with His stripes we are healed.

27 CHORUS

All we, like sheep, have gone astray;
we have turned every one to his own way,
and the Lord hath laid on Him
the iniquity of us all.

26. KÓR

Og fyrir benjar hans urðum vér heilbrigðir.

(Jes 53.5)

27. KÓR

Vér fórum allir villir vegar sem sauðir, héldum hver sína leið
en Drottinn lét synd vor allra
koma niður á honum.

(Jes 53.6)

28. TÓNLES (Tenór)

Allir, sem sjá hann, gera gys að honum, geifla sig og hrista höfuðið og segja:

(Slm 22.8)

28 ACCOMPAGNATO (Tenor)

All they that see Him laugh Him to scorn; they shoot out their lips, and shake their heads, saying:

29 CHORUS

He trusted in God that He would deliver Him; let Him deliver Him, if He delight in Him.

29. KÓR

Hann treystir Guði. Nú ætti Guð að frelsa hann ef hann hefur mætur á honum.

(Matt 27.43)

30 ACCOMPAGNATO (Tenor)

Thy rebuke hath broken His heart: He is full of heaviness.
He looked for some to have pity on Him, but there was no man,
neither found He any to comfort Him.

30. TÓNLES (Tenór)

Háðungin kramdi hjarta hans svo að hann örvaði.
Hann vonaði að einhver sýndi meðaumkun en þar
var enginn,
og að einhverjir hugguðu en fann engan.

(Slm 69.21)

31 ACCOMPAGNATO (Tenor)

Behold, and see
if there be any sorrow
like unto His sorrow.

32 ACCOMPAGNATO (Soprano)

He was cut off out the land of the living:
for the transgressions of Thy people was He stricken.

33 AIR (Soprano)

But Thou didst not leave His soul in hell; nor didst
Thou suffer Thy Holy One to see corruption.

34 CHORUS

Lift up your heads, O ye gates;
and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors;
and the King of Glory shall come in.
Who is this King of Glory?
The Lord strong and mighty,
the Lord mighty in battle.
Lift up your heads,
O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors;
and the King of Glory shall come in.
Who is this King of Glory?
The Lord of Hosts,
He is the King of Glory.

35 RECITATIVE (Tenor)

Unto which of the angels said He at any time:
Thou art My Son,
this day have I begotten Thee?

31. TÓNLES (Tenór)

Skyggnist um og sjáið,
finnst sú kvöl sem jafnast á við
þá sem á hann var lögð.

(Hlj 1.12)

32. TÓNLES (Sópran)

Hann var hrifinn burt af landi lifenda.
Vegna syndar míns lýðs var honum refsað.

(Jes 53.8b)

33. ARÍA (Sópran)

Því að ekki munt þú skilja sálu hans eftir í helju og eigi láta þinn heilaga verða rotnun að bráð.

(Post 2.27)

34. KÓR

Þér hlið, lyftið höfðum yðar,
hefjið yður, þér öldnu dyr,
svo að konungur dýrðarinnar megi inn ganga.
Hver er þessi konungur dýrðarinnar?
Það er Drottinn, hin volduga hetja,
Drottinn, bardagahetjan.
Þér hlið, lyftið höfðum yðar,
hefjið yður, þér öldnu dyr,
svo að konungur dýrðarinnar megi inn ganga.
Hver er þessi konungur dýrðarinnar?
Það er Drottinn hersveitanna,
hann er konungur dýrðarinnar.

(Slm 24.7-10)

35. TÓNLES (Tenór)

Því við hvern af englunum hefur hann nokkru sinni sagt:
Þú ert sonur minn,
í dag hef ég fætt þig?

(Heb 1.5)

36 CHORUS

Let all the angels of God worship Him.

37 AIR (Soprano)

Thou art gone up on high;
Thou hast led captivity captive,
and received gifts for men;
yea, even from Thine enemies,
that the Lord God might dwell among them.

38 CHORUS

The Lord gave the word;
great was the company of the preachers.

39 AIR (Soprano)

How beautiful are the feet of them:
that preach the gospel of peace,
and bring glad tidings of good things.

40 CHORUS

Their sound is gone out into all lands, and their words unto the ends of the world.

41 AIR (Bass)

Why do the nations so furiously rage together, and why do the people imagine a vain thing?
The kings of the earth rise up,
and the rulers take counsel together against the Lord, and against His Anointed.

36. KÓR

Allir englar Guðs skulu tilbiðja hann.

(Heb 1.6b)

37. ARÍA (Sópran)

Þú steigst upp til hæða,
hafðir á burt bandingja,
tókst við gjöfum frá mönnum,
jafnvel uppreisnarmönnum.
Drottinn Guð mun búa þar.

(Slm 68.19)

38. KÓR

Drottinn lætur boðskap út ganga,
heill her [fólks] flytur sigurfréttina:

(Slm 68.12)

39. ARÍA (Sópran)

Hversu yndislegir eru fætur fagnaðarboðans sem friðinn kunngjörir, gleðitiðindin flytur.

(Jes 52.7a)

40. KÓR

Boðskapur þeirra hefur borist út um alla jörð og orð þeirra til endimarka heimsbyggðarinnar.

(Róm 10.18b)

41. AIR (Bass)

Hví geisuðu heiðingjarnir
og hví brugguðu þjóðirnar fánýt ráð?
Konungar jarðarinnar risu upp og höfðingjarnir söfnuðust saman gegn Drottni og gegn hans Smurða.

(Post 4.25b-26)

42 CHORUS

Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their yokes from us.

43 RECITATIVE (Tenor)

He that dwelleth in heaven shall laugh them to scorn;
the Lord shall have them in derision.

44 AIR (Tenor)

Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

45 CHORUS

Hallelujah! for the Lord God Omnipotent reigneth.

The kingdom of this world is become the kingdom of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever.

King of Kings, and Lord of Lords.
Hallelujah!

42. KÓR

Vér skulum slíta fjötra þeirra
og varpa af oss viðum þeirra."

(Slm 2.3)

43. TÓNLES (Tenór)

Hann, sem situr á himni, hlær,
Drottinn gerir gys að þeim.

(Slm 2.4)

44. ARÍA (Tenór)

Þú skalt mola þær með járnstaf, mylja þær eins og leirkar.

(Slm 2:9)

45. KÓR

Hallelúja, Drottinn Guð vor, hinn alvaldi, er konungur orðinn.

(Opb 19.6b)

Drottinn og Kristur hans hafa fengið valdið yfir heiminum og hann mun ríkja um aldir alda.

(Opb 11.15b)

Konungur konunga og Drottinn drottna.
Hallelúja!

(Opb 19.16b)

PART THREE

A Hymn of Thanksgiving for the final overthrow of Death

46 AIR (Soprano)

I know that my Redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth.
And though worms destroy this body,
yet in my flesh shall I see God.

For now is Christ risen from the dead, the first fruits of them that sleep.

47 CHORUS

Since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

48 ACCOMPAGNATO (Bass)

Behold, I tell you a mystery; we shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet.

49 AIR (Bass)

The trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption and this mortal must put on immortality.

ÞRIÐJI HLUTI

Þakkargjörðarsöngur vegna lokasigursins á dauðanum

46. ARÍA (Sópran)

Ég veit að lausnari minn lifir
og hann mun síðastur ganga fram á foldu.
Eftir að þessi húð míن er sundurtætt
og allt hold er af mér mun ég líta Guð.

(Job 19.25–26)

En nú er Kristur upprisinn frá dauðum, frumgróði þeirra sem sofnuð eru.

(I Kor 15.20)

47. KÓR

Eins og dauðinn kom með manni, þannig kemur upprisa dauðra með manni. Eins og allir deyja vegna sambands síns við Adam, svo munu allir lífgaðir verða vegna sambands síns við Krist.

(I Kor 15.21–22)

48. TÓNLES (Bassi)

Sjá, ég segi ykkur leyndardóm: Við munum ekki öll deyja en öll munum við umbreytast, í einni svipan, á einu augabragði, við hinn síðasta lúður.

(I Kor 15.51–52a)

49. ARÍA (Bassi)

Því lúðurinn mun gjalla og þá munu dauðir upp rísa óforgengilegir og við munum umbreytast. Forgengilegir og dauðlegir líkamir okkar eiga að breytast í óforgengilega líkami sem dauðinn nær ekki til.

(I Kor 15.52b–53)

50 RECITATIVE (Alto)

Then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written:
Death is swallowed up in victory.

51 DUET (Alto/Tenor)

O death, where is thy sting?
O grave, where is thy victory
The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law.

52 CHORUS

But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

53 AIR (Soprano)

If God be for us, who can be against us?

Who shall lay anything to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth, who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, that is risen again, who is at the right hand of God, who makes intercession for us.

54 CHORUS

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, and hath redeemed us to God by His blood, to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. Blessing and honour, glory and power, be unto Him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb, for ever and ever. Amen.

50. TÓNLES (Alt)

Þá rætist það sem ritað er:
Dauðinn er uppsvelgdur í sigur.

(I Kor 15.54b)

51. TVÍSÖNGUR (Alt/Tenór)

Dauði, hvar er sigur þinn?
Dauði, hvar er broddur þinn?
En syndin er broddur dauðans og lögmálið afl syndarinnar.

(I Kor 15.55–56)

52. KÓR

Guði séu þakkar, sem gefur oss sigurinn fyrir Drottin vorn Jesú Krist!

(I Kor 15.57)

53. ARÍA (Sópran)

Ef Guð er með okkur hver er þá á móti okkur?
(Róm 8.31b)

Hver skyldi ásaka Guðs útvöldu? Það er Guð sem sýknar. Hver sakfellir? Kristur Jesús er sá sem dáinn er. Og meira en það: Hann er upprisinn, hann er við hægri hönd Guðs og hann biður fyrir okkur.

(Róm 8.33–34)

54. KÓR

Maklegt er lambið slátraða
og með blóði sínu keypti það Guði til handa að fá máttinn og ríkdóminn, visku og kraft, heiður og dýrð og lofgjörð.
Honum, sem í hásætinu situr, og lambinu, sé lof og heiður, dýrð og kraftur um aldir alda. Amen.
(Opb 5.12–13)
